

Jims Day out

1. Jim and his friend Harry were going out for the day in Jim's car (rattle keys)
2. Harry and Jim loved to have picnics in the fresh air, it was a beautiful Spring Day, warm, with the sun shining (Sun light)
3. They got in the car and put on their seatbelts (OOR seatbelt)
4. Jim turned on the Radio as they drove along the country lanes (radio – sun has got his hat on)
5. As they turned a corner Harry saw a sheep in the road and shouted to Jim “Stop the Car” (sign Stop the car)
6. The sheep looked very frightened and began to bleat ( sheep sound prop)
7. Jim stopped and pressed the car horn, shouted “Move, Move”(use voice activator) (press car horn and pass to everyone to press)
8. The sheep went into the field through the gate (gate latch )
9. Jim and Harry continued their journey and decided to stop for lunch in a nice quiet place. Jim had made sandwiches and cake ( pass box around to feel and take lid off)

10. Jim put the picnic blanket on the ground ready for them to sit on (feel the blanket – lay across table for effect) and they sat and ate their picnic.
11. The sandwiches and cake tasted very good.
12. After lunch Jim and Harry went for a walk and picked some flowers to take home to Harry's mum (silk flowers to smell)
13. On the way home Jim saw a sign on the side of the road "Eggs for Sale". They stopped the car and went into a large barn where a man sat selling eggs. They could hear the chickens (pass plastic chicken around and make chicken noise)
14. "We could have eggs for tea" said Harry.
"Yes" said Jim and we could play a game with them for Easter.
15. Jim bought some eggs and that evening they ate boiled eggs and toast for tea. Afterwards they played rolling the eggs across the table (roll eggs to each person across the table) Harry won the game and they ate the Chocolate eggs to celebrate their brilliant day out.

Written by Jayne England